DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1- 4 are drawn to a method of playing lacrosse, classified in class 473, subclass 505.
- II Claims 5-9 are drawn to a lacrosse head, classified in class 473, subclass 513.

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the method claimed could be used with a traditional lacrosse head and handle.

If the applicant elects Group I, the following restriction is also made:

- III. Claims 1-2 are drawn to a method of adjusting the length of a lacrosse head, classified in class 473, subclass 505.
- IV. Claim 3-4 are drawn to a method of replacing a lacrosse head, classified in class 473, subclass 505.

Inventions III and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as replacing a lacrosse head on a traditional shaft. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

If the applicant elects Group II, the following restriction is also made:

- V Claims 5-6 are drawn to an adjustable lacrosse stick, classified in class 473, subclass 513.
- VI Claim 7 is drawn to a lacrosse shaft, classified in class 473, subclass 513.
- VII Claims 8-9 are drawn to a replaceable lacrosse head, classified in class 473, subclass 513.

Inventions V-VII are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention VI has separate utility such as rack handle and a replacement stick does not require that it be adjustable. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

A telephone call was made to applicant's attorney M. Shea on August 5, 2005 to request an election to the above restriction requirement with a voice mail message to respond if applicant wished to discuss the restriction otherwise it would be mailed out. At the time of this action, applicant's representative has not returned the examiner's phone message which resulted in this action being mailed.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
